People who were impacted by the Flint water crisis will soon be able to participate in a voluntary secure registry that will connect them to programs and other resources aimed at minimizing the effects of lead on their health, while promoting wellness and recovery.

Michigan State University College of Human Medicine received funding for this work from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Grant #NU2EH001370.
Get Connected.
Get Supported.
Get Counted.

People who were impacted by the Flint water crisis are eligible to pre-enroll into this registry. The registry includes those who worked, received childcare or went to school in Flint, and those who were exposed during pregnancy.

To pre-enroll or more information:
Visit www.flintregistry.org
Call (833) GO-FLINT
Email flintregistry@hc.msu.edu

People who were impacted by the Flint water crisis are eligible to pre-enroll into this registry. The registry includes those who worked, received childcare or went to school in Flint, and those who were exposed during pregnancy.

CONNECT WITH US ON SOCIAL MEDIA

@flintregistry.org  @flintregistry  @FlintRegistry

Michigan State University College of Human Medicine received funding for this work from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Grant #NUE2EH001370.